

The Care & Share Centre, The Salvation Army offers numerous social services in the community including a Voucher Program (providing free clothing and household items), Correctional Services (providing services to prison inmates and their families), Emergency Shelter and Homeless Outreach programs, as well as:

- The Soup Kitchen which offers one free meal a day, Monday to Friday from 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm.
- The Bread Room which is open Monday to Friday from 9:00 am - 4:00 pm daily. Free bread, pastries, and donated close-to-date food is available.
- The Food Bank which offers emergency food to unemployed and underemployed people who are hungry. This service is available by appointment.

Phone: 604-792-0001

Did You Know....

As of 2015, 36% of BC's seniors have a household income of less than $30,000.

Seniors' Housing in BC: Affordable, Appropriate, Available. Office of the Seniors Advocate; 2015

Ruth and Naomi's Street Mission works with members of the Chilliwack community to help find solutions for their needs. They provide an evening meal for families with kids, laundry, showers, clothing distribution, 30 day emergency shelter, and operate a residential recovery centre. In addition, they offer:

- A free evening meal for adults Monday - Saturday at 7:00 pm
- Emergency food hampers

Phone: Daytime - 604-795-2322, Evening - 604-795-0226

Chilliwack United Church and the Chilliwack Kiwanis run a soup kitchen, offering free lunch every 2nd and 3rd Saturday of the month at the United Church at 12:00 pm.

Phone: 604-792-4634

